ADVERTISEMENTS

Lindsay's contact information was omitted when I ran this last week. If your interested in Mela you can reach Lindsay at: lindseyla@gmail.com

Dear Neighbors,

We have decided to find a new home for our beloved cat, Mela (May-la). He is three years old and is an orange American shorthair. Mela was born to our older cat, Umbali, after one of her escapades along Skyline Blvd. during the pandemic. We kept Mela and his brother, Devu, from Umbali's litter and we adore them both.

Unfortunately, we have to free-feed our cats and cannot regulate how much each cat eats individually. Mela really enjoys food (as he should!) but he would have a healthier, longer life if he lived in a home where his food could be distributed at meal time, rather than left out all day.

Mela is neutered, microchipped, up-to-date on vaccines and has had a recent veterinary well-check visit. He loves to cuddle with his person and can usually be found napping in the sunshine. We will not be asking for a rehoming fee if we are able to find the right family to adopt him.

Please reach out if you are interested. Thanks so much,
Lindsey
