ODFW seeks applicants for positions on statewide, regional Access and Habitat program boards \(view online\)

SALEM, Ore. – ODFW is looking for people with an interest in hunting, wildlife conservation and land management to serve on the Access and Habitat Program's statewide board and regional councils.

Volunteers in these positions meet quarterly to consider funding projects that open private land to hunting access or improve wildlife habitat for game animals.

The statewide board and regional councils are each made up of seven volunteers – three landowner representatives, three hunter representatives, and the Chair.

Find application materials at https://www.dfw.state.or.us/lands/AH/get_involved.asp

ODFW is currently accepting applications for the following positions:

Statewide Hunter Representative – Apply by Jan. 31 (see Statewide board application)

Statewide board members are appointed to four-year terms by the Fish and Wildlife Commission. They meet four times each year in various communities throughout the state to review project funding applications, hear public testimony and act as liaisons between the program and the public.

Regional Council positions – Open until filled (see Regional Council application)

Applicants for the regional positions should live or work in that region (see map). Duties of the position including participation in up to four public meetings each year in various communities in their region to review A&H project proposals and conduct other council business. Contact the Regional Council Coordinator for more information.

Forest Park Neighbors Assoc

Following is an email from Carol Chesarek, President of Forest Park Neighborhood. It was full of good information and resources regarding wildfire prevention that I thought you'd find useful. Keep in mind, that SRN is mostly outside the City of Portland jurisdiction.

Dear Forest Park Neighborhood,

Did you know that most of our neighborhood is in a Wildfire Hazard Area?

At our meeting next Tuesday we will hear from Kim Kosmas of the Portland Fire Bureau about the city's wildfire preparedness program. The city offers free Wildland Urban Interface (WUI) assessments to help property owners reduce the risk to their home (not sure if these are available for folks outside the city, but it won't hurt to request one) and a Firewise Communities program. Some of our residents are interested in becoming a Firewise Community, so we will discuss that.

December and January are among the best months to work on trees on your property to avoid disturbing nesting birds. Early nesting season begins February 1 (and possibly earlier as the climate changes).

The fire bureau's wildfire web site includes useful documents and an informative video, with information about how to make both your house and landscape more wildfire resistant. The video mentions the national standards for defensible space, but goes on to explain that local regulations (aka city and county code) may require adjustments and permits. The video also mentions the value of the closed canopy for habitat, shade and moisture retention. It doesn't mention that deciduous trees are less flammable or that all trees help reduce stormwater runoff and landslide risk, but perhaps that's too much to hope for. I am very excited and grateful that the city is developing these materials appropriate to our area and making this program available.

<https://www.portland.gov/fire/your-safety/reducing-risk-wildfire> (this one has the best video)

You can sign-up for a free WUI home assessment here: <https://www.portland.gov/fire/your-safety/wildland-urban-interface-wui-home-assessment>. These assessments help you understand the steps you can take to make your home safer, but you are NOT required to implement them.

Information about the Firewise Community program: <https://www.portland.gov/fire/your-safety/firewise-community-program>

We also strongly recommend that you sign up for Public Alerts so that you'll automatically get emergency alerts for our area: <https://www.publicalerts.org/> There is also an app you can install on your mobile phone.

There are two attachments to this email. One is the OSU list of Fire Resistant Plants that you can use to select new trees and assess the ones currently around your home.

The other attachment is for our city residents – it lists Exemptions from the city codes that protect trees and shrubs. This is very helpful for city residents who may need permits or be limited in the pruning and tree removal that's allowed due to the tree code or e-zones. For example, pruning is exempt (not regulated and no permit required) within 10' of your home. If in doubt, check with the city before pruning or tree work.

About the Newsline

Skyline Rural Watch Newsline is a part of Skyline Ridge Neighbors (SRN) and has been produced since June 1994 as a means to communicate neighborhood information. The Newsline is produced by Laurel Erhardt (editor) with help from Miles Merwin, Libby Merwin, and San Speroff.

The Newsline depends on you as a source of accurate information about local crimes, upcoming events, and other news pertinent to the area. If you have information you would like considered for the Newsline, you may do so by e-mailing the information to newsline@srnpdx.org, or leaving a message at (503) 621-3501. Urgent, timely items (crimes, lost pets) should be emailed to alert@srnpdx.org. If you would like more detailed information about any item on the Newsline, request that information & SRN will e-mail it to you if available.

You can subscribe to the Newsline at the Skyline Ridge Neighbors website, SRNPDX.org. Tell your neighbors about this free Newsline service.
