N.W. Logie Trail Road reopens after landslide

For immediate release: February 14, 2024

News Contact:
Sarah Hurwitz, pressoffice@multco.us

Multnomah County, Ore. (Feb. 14, 2024) — TRAFFIC ALERT: N.W. Logie Trail Road between N.W. Skyline Boulevard and Highway 30 is now open. It closed Jan. 31st due to a landslide. During the last two weeks, crews worked to clear landslide debris and fallen trees. They then stabilized the exposed bank. January's severe weather event increased the potential for landslides as grounds were saturated and trees were weakened by the ice and wind.

Just a few weeks after January's severe weather event, Multnomah County Transportation Road Maintenance is now preparing for potential snow overnight and will be working extended hours to monitor road conditions. Crews will be ready to plow and sand County roads impacted by any snow east and west of Portland. The County largely serves rural roads and some arterials.

Follow County road condition updates at: <https://twitter.com/MultiCoRoads>.

Multnomah County maintains 269 miles of roads. For information, visit: <https://www.multco.us/roads>.

Rumble On The River Community Forum #13--Webinar

Thursday, February 22nd: 7:00-8:30 PM

Register HERE for this ZOOM webinar.
Risky Reality of Our Toxic Mix – PSU/Multnomah County Report Review
“Over 1000 hazardous storage containers at local industries in Multnomah County are in danger of leaking in an earthquake because they were not built to seismic design standards. Those holding hazardous gasses may release toxic plumes into the air that can be life-threatening. These plumes will be carried by the wind to other locations. Other hazmats may spill onto soil and water with dire environmental impacts.”
— Tank The Tanks

The panel of experts will present on toxic plume releases following an earthquake or other accident, including

- Review of the Report
- Emergency Management of a Toxic Scenario
- Public Safety Education Resources
- Community Resilience and Preparedness Strategies
- Risk Bonding
- Calls To Action.

Panelists

Luke Hanst: Writer, Project Director, Institute of Sustainable Solutions, PSU
Chris Voss: Director, Emergency Management, Multnomah County
Alice Busch: Emergency Management, Multnomah County; EMT, former Firefighter and Portland NET
Melanie Plaut: Retired OB-GYN with Oregon Physicians for Social Responsibility
